~~General and Revenue Departments~~

SIR,

With reference to Government Order No.G.11894-6/Pris. 18-18-4 dated 18th December 1918, I have the honor to report that the Prison Probationer, after having had a course of training in the Industrial Department, has reported to me for duty and I have retained him in my office.

2. In accordance with your letter No.J.2317/Pris.33-17-2 dated 3rd January 1918, this officer has completed Military as well as Industrial training. He worked in my office for nearly one year and has acquired a good knowledge of standing orders, office - routine and procedure. As for the Departmental Examinations he is required to pass, he got through the Prisons Examination held in May 1918. He appeared for the other two examinations viz: Criminal (Higher) and Accounts (Higher) in last May, but has not come out out successful.

3. The period of probation allowed for him expires on the 28th of November next, as he joined service on 29th November 1917. Since he has not passed all the required examinations, I recommend that the period of his probation may be extended by another year.

4. In my letter No.1856/1-17 dated 11th December 1917, I proposed to Government that this officer should have some training in agriculture and gardening in addition to the military as well as industrial training. But the question of giving him agricultural training was dropped in accordance with your letter No. G.6069/Pris. 18-18-2 dated 29th September 1918.As the period of probation has again been recommended to be extended by another year, I request sanction of Government to allow the offical to have some agricultural training also, which would undoubtedly help him to carefully supervise the Jail farm and garden.

I have the honor to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant.
